FJB's BLOG

Dear Parishioners,

Merry Christmas! Today we celebrate the birthday of our Savior Jesus Christ. We celebrate the great incarnation. Throughout Advent we have been preparing our "Stable" for this celebration. We have solidified our prayer lives, worked to become other centered in giving our time, talent, and treasure, we have sought to care for one another in proclaiming the Good News of Jesus to all we meet and encounter, and work hard to be always thanking God for our many blessings. The INCARNATION is the reality that our God loved us so much he became man, to save us and give us the greatest gift of all, Salvation.

On behalf of our entire staff, I wish a Merry Christmas to all our parish families and those who are visiting with us this Christmas and Christmas season. We hope you find your worship with us joy-filled! Thank you so much to Kyle Lorek for the incredible music this Christmas. He, along with Jim Markel, Connie Benedum, the choirs, cantors, and other musicians use their talents so well to draw us into the Mass. All I can say is WOW and THANK YOU! You are all a blessing in our parish.

Thank you to Bob Perusek who coordinates all the Masses, the Christmas décor, and the cleanliness of the church. He does such a wonderful job and all who help him make our church look so great. Thank you to the ladies who help him decorate and the to the FJB Cleaning Angels who do such a nice job keeping our church so clean. Thank you also to the EMHCs, Lectors, Servers, Greeters, and Ushers. Your ministry enhances our parish Masses.

And thank you to all of you! Thank you for praying with us, for celebrating with us, and thank you for your generosity to the parish all year round, but especially this time of year.

We will be embarking on the ALPHA journey this January. Alpha is a series of sessions exploring the Christian faith, conducted over ten weeks. Each talk looks at a different faith question and is designed to create conversation. Alpha is run all around the globe, and everyone is welcome. We encourage you to come and invite your family, friends, co-workers, neighbors, etc. We especially encourage you to invite people who have been away from the faith or have no faith at all. Be bold, invite someone, and offer to attend with them.

Make it a great Christmas season. See you in Church!

Peace,
Fr. John

Faith Formation

Ss. Robert & William Catholic School Website: www.srwshool.cc

This school year we are offering a series in which each staff member of the school reflects on his/her mission and purpose of Catholic Education. Meet Mrs. Andrea Ralph. Mrs. Ralph teaches the 4-year old students in the ½ day PreK program. Here is her mission:

I have grown to have great pride in and commitment to the early childhood field. The mission of my classroom is to teach each child as an individual. It is understood that no two children are alike...nor do they learn and grow in the same way. Children do not grow and develop according to a rigid plan. With this in mind, the prekindergarten exists to provide opportunities for the growth and development of the whole child in an individual, accepting, non-judgmental way. In the SRW prekindergarten class, each child is viewed as a unique individual. Differentiated instruction is used each day in my classroom. Differentiation is to modify instruction to help each child learn and grow; considering their different interests, talents, background knowledge, learning styles, abilities, and readiness. I also find it most important that young children are taught to value and show appreciation for one another. The children come to feel they are part of a group in which they contribute lovingly and are accepted as who they are. We use grace and courtesy lessons for children. This helps the child feel comfortable with him/herself and with other people. As part of a Catholic education program, it is in the prekindergarten that we prepare for more formal instruction which will come in the years ahead. During the preschool-prekindergarten years, a child is developing good-decision making skills and forming good habits. He or she is developing a positive self-image in relationship to a loving God. I seek to provide an atmosphere to enhance development in all areas: religious, physical, emotional, social, and cognitive.

I wish to extend a special welcome to our unique program. I feel that it is very important to let you know that I take special pride in meeting your child's individual needs and relating to you and your child on a personal basis. I base my teaching on a positive philosophy. I set my guidelines to develop the wisdom of acceptance and a good self-image. I take pride in setting a good example of character to help teach children to respect one another's feelings and to create empathy for their peers as well as the importance of good relationships with the total family. You and your family are important to me. I promise to keep your child safe, loved, and happy in an enriching learning environment.

Thank you for your support of our school. Feel free to join us every Tuesday at 8:00 am for all school Mass.

Spiritual

First Annual Blessing of Families will be on December 31 after 4:00 pm Mass and January 1 after 9:00 and 11:00 am Masses. ## Women's Fellowship

Cancellation of our annual Women's Fellowship Advent Breakfast due to weather was a great disappointment to all of us, but a powerful reminder that God is always the one in control of our lives. We will save all our wonderfully wrought centerpieces and our (also wonderfully wrought) speaker, Mrs. Marianne Better, for another time.

Please watch this space for our BRAND NEW programs for 2017. How about a New Year's resolution to make time to enrich your faith and fellowship with us? Give it some prayer. ALL area women are welcome. We will be waiting for you on the 2nd Saturday of each month in the Upper Hall, 9-11am. Call Pam Mignona 440.241.3917 or Marcia Granito 216.570.7667 for further info.
